Take A Step

Learning to Share The Best News Ever

You Are 'Here'

Sharing your faith can feel daunting, but just take one step at a time with us, and we'll guide you along the journey.

When passionate evangelists tell their stories, you can be left thinking that sharing the gospel is one mountain-top experience after another.

But evangelism is as simply one step of faith after another, and everyone can make it a part of their day-to-day lives.

What is Take a Step?

Over recent years, "Couch to 5K" has become a popular running programme for beginners. We were inspired to come up with an evangelism equivalent, the "Take A Step" Initiative: ten weekly sessions made up of a short video alongside steps that anyone can attempt, that fit around your schedule and apply to your context.

The course has been designed to cover subjects like our identity in Christ, being people of peace, offering prayer - all the while learning simple, practical tools for sharing what Jesus has done for us.

It's the perfect way to get started on the journey to sharing your faith regularly. There's no expectation to keep up the pace if you'd like to linger on one segment for longer. And once you've completed ten sessions there will be resources for discipleship to help you continue the journey.

Your Guides

Jesus planted his church through ordinary men and women, and his original plan hasn't changed.

Our course leaders are not experts, but men and women who follow God in obedience and trust, and see him work through their steps of faith.

Gordon Watson

Hope Church Sittingbourne

“I lead Hope Church Sittingbourne (a church plant in Kent) and love seeing people come alive when they discover the new life that Jesus brings. I also enjoy coffee, camper vans and Charlton Athletic FC (but not necessarily in that order!)”

Andy & Janet Moyle

The Gateway Church

Andy and Janet are based in sunny Norfolk where they run and make pizza to reach out to friends. They have planted two churches and have a heart for the nations and involving everyone in mission.

Martin Segal

The City Church Canterbury

“I live in Canterbury with my wife Kathryn and our two daughters, and I'm an elder at The City Church and a community leader within Relational Mission. I'm passionate about seeing the Church living courageously for Christ, living in the good of His grace and living out the hope he has given us.”

Marie Reavey

Wellspring Family Church, Dereham

Marie is the national chair of the Christian Police Association and national lead for Faith and Police Together.

“My passion is to see every follower of Jesus equipped to share their testimonies and the good news of Jesus with those who are placed around them in a natural normal everyday way just as Jesus would.”

Steve Dunn

Beacon Church Herne Bay

“I’m an elder at The Beacon Church Herne Bay, and have a passion for inviting people to meet with Jesus. I love sharing stories, hearing those of others, and helping them see for themselves the Big Story that we get to step into because of Him.”

David Bareham

Community Church Chafford Hundred

“I’m married to Anita and part of the eldership team at Community Church Chafford Hundred, and I’m passionate about the church and her mission to reach the lost. I help equip churches to connect with people who are far from God, share the gospel, make disciples, and plant churches, using simple reproducing tools.”

Mike Ikwuagwu

Gateway Church Kings Lynn

“I enjoy paddling along the Norfolk coastline with my wife Debs and two sons, and I’m the youth and community pastor at the Gateway Church Kings Lynn.”
